DEL WEBB PH II SUBPHASES 2A, 2B & 2C,
BRADENTON, FL

One or more photo(s) has been virtually staged. Go into this beautifully upgraded Summerwood home, designed with comfort, style and everyday ease in mind. In the sought-after 55-plus gated community of Del Webb at Lakewood Ranch, this 2018 residence blends thoughtful design with a vibrant lifestyle. With over 2,000 square feet of living space, the open-concept layout flows effortlessly from the gourmet kitchen to the extended great room and out through sliding glass doors to a covered, screened lanai overlooking a peaceful pond. Ideal for morning coffee, entertaining friends or simply unwinding, this home offers a backdrop that makes every day feel special. The chef's kitchen is functional and inviting, featuring 42-inch cabinetry with pullout shelving, quartz countertops, stainless steel appliances including a five-burner gas range, center island with pendant lighting and a walk-in pantry. The spacious primary suite is a retreat with a spa-like bath, dual quartz vanities, oversized walk-in shower with dual showerheads, and a large walk-in closet. A private guest suite, den with French doors and smart upgrades such as plantation shutters, crown molding, epoxy-coated garage with golf cart parking, and a whole-house water system add to the appeal. Life at Del Webb means more than a home, it's a community. Residents enjoy maintenance-free living, 24-hour security, and access to a world-class clubhouse with dining, social events, resort-style pools, tennis, pickleball, bocce and a full calendar of activities led by an on-site lifestyle director. Whether you’re ready for a lock-and-leave home that makes travel easy, space for family visits or new opportunities to connect with neighbors, this property and community deliver it all. This isn’t just a move, it’s a lifestyle upgrade.
