BACK ON MARKET and ready for you to fall in love with it!! What more could you ask for!! This house offers so many possibilities for you to shape it into your own perfect home. Sitting on over 11 acres, all fenced, this home has plenty of space for you to let your animals graze or whatever fits your lifestyle. The land is currently split into 2 paddocks and has a two stall barn. Behind the barn there is a shaded trail that the owners ride their horses on (all within the property lines). The sellers have added a 30x30x14 metal building with electric and water. Currently its being used to restore cars but the possibilities are endless. Next to the building/shop you'll have the perfect spot to park an RV with the added 30/50amp outlet as well as fresh water. Speaking of RV, the owners specifically made the driveway a forked entrance that way it can accommodate even the largest RVs to be maneuvered within the front yard. Inside the home boasts tons of natural light, tall ceilings and no carpet is to be found within the home! When building the home, the owners added 36 wheelchair doors for wheelchair accessibility. The primary bedroom is massive, fitting some of the largest furniture. Walking into the primary bathroom, you notice a true dual head shower offering plenty of space within. Exiting the home from the rear into the back porch, you'll notice this might be one of the most serene spots to sit and relax. Overlooking the above ground pool, horse barn and even the expansive yard, its the best place to sit and enjoy your morning coffee.
